

Calling all school careers leads

Watch The WOW Show live at 10am Wednesday, 26th of June with the opportunity for a Healthcare Ambassador to join your students!

It's a great chance for your students to see behind the scenes, to hear what it's really like working in the NHS and to explore the pathways to rewarding and fulfilling careers working as Allied Health Professionals.

Working with Health Education England, The WOW Show has been given special access to the work of the Allied Health Professionals, who make up a third of the workforce in the health service. This half-hour programme will give students real-life encounters with newly qualified Allied Health Professionals in these vital careers, providing fresh perspectives on the world of work.

And in the first linkup of its kind with Inspiring the Future*, schools can invite an AHP Ambassador to visit to help students deepen their understanding of these career opportunities. To find out more about how to invite AHP Ambassadors into your school and how to register go to the ITF website.

Watch The WOW Show live on June 26 on its YouTube channel HERE; or view on demand any time afterwards.

Coming soon: look out for our trailer; and for our teacher resources, designed to help address 4 of the 8 Gatsby Benchmarks. For further information please contact: Vanessa.cullen@hee.nhs.uk, Assistant Project Manager, Health Education England

*Notes for Career Leads *inspiring the Future is a free service connecting teachers from schools and colleges with thousands of volunteers across the UK, from a huge range of jobs, at all levels, from Apprentices to CEOs through a secure online platform.*
