

One Hour. Your Story. A Lifetime of Possibilities.

Speak to young people about your job. No prep. No pressure.
Just your story.

Just one hour a year can change lives. In fact, four career chats in school can radically reduce a young person's chance of leaving school and Not being in Education, Employment or Training (NEET)*.

If kids don't hear your story, they might never know it's possible. Many young people, especially in deprived areas, feel stuck – because you can't be what you can't see.

Any job. Any background.
Everyone is welcome. You're more inspiring than you think.
